Name of Identity Referee:

Attached copy of the Verification Statement or authenticated photo

Date completed:

2. Work History

Obtain a chronological summary of the person's work history for a minimum of the preceding 5 years, including a description of positions held. This can be a copy of a CV or job application. Any gaps in the 5-year period must be explained.

Work history attached

Date completed:

3. Referee Checks (Best practice is to contact two referees)

Contact at least one referee. A referee cannot be related to the person or part of the person's extended family. Confirm with the referee that the information in the person's CV is correct. Ask the referee if they have any concerns regarding the person's suitability to work with children.

4. Professional Membership

Seek information from any relevant professional organisation or registration authority to confirm if the candidate is a current member, registered or certificated by the authority.

For certified teachers:

Check the online Teaching Council register for the person's certification category and expiry date. If the teacher has any censures or conditions, this will be noted on the register.

Name of any professional organisations, licensing authorities, or registration authorities:

Copies issued from the relevant professional organisation, licensing or registration authority attached

Date completed:

A screenshot from an online register check attached

5. Police Vet

You will need to Police vet all employees; however, if the person is a teacher who holds a current practising certificate their Police vet will already have been done and this can be relied on.

Police vet result shows:

- No convictions
 Convictions:

Convictions of a special offence – (person must not be employed in a core children's worker role unless they have an exemption).

Copy of Police vet attached

OR

Holds a current practising certificate so a new police vet was not requested

5A. Adults in home (for home-based services only)

The service provider of a licensed home-based service must obtain a police vet of every adult (person 17 years or older) who lives in a home:

- where the service is being provided, and
- where at least 1 child to whom the service is being provided does not live in the home

Copy of Police vet(s) for adult(s) in home attached

5B. We also recommend obtaining a Police Vet for workers from overseas

In addition to obtaining a NZ Police vet, you should ask them to provide copies of police certificates from their countries of citizenship and from any country in which they have lived for one or more years, within the last 10 years.

Attached copy of police certificate from their countries of citizenship

Attached copy of police certificate from any country in which they have lived for one or more years, within the last 10 years

When a person cannot provide an overseas police certificate:

- Attach proof of attempts to obtain a certificate
 Statutory declaration attached stating whether they have any overseas criminal convictions or not

6. Interview (ensure that you have gathered all the information you will need to conduct a meaningful interview)

Document the interview conducted, such as interview notes or summary. Detail questions asked and answers provided.

Interview type: Face to face Phone Other:

Interviewer(s):

Date of interview:

Copy of detailed interview notes attached

NOTE: This interview is not the 'job interview'. It is specifically aimed at establishing the person's safety to work with and have access to children as required by the Children's (Requirements for Safety Checks of Children's Workers) Regulations 2015. This interview should be conducted after all the relevant information in steps 1 to 5 has been obtained and before the risk assessment is completed (step 7). This interview may be conducted over telephone or zoom etc. but remember, it is requirement that the prospective employer meets the person at least once face-to-face prior to completing the risk assessment.

7. Risk Assessment

Evaluate all the information you have gathered to assess the risk the candidate would pose to the safety of children if employed or engaged.

You must detail how all information gathered for the other components of the safety check (identity check, work history, interview, referee, membership, and Police vet) has been considered for the risk assessment.

REFLECT	Is the person safe to work with children?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
	Would the person support and adhere to your child protection policy, and actively contribute to a culture of child protection in your organisation?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
	Are there any inconsistencies in information supplied, e.g., information not mentioned on the person's work history or during interview that was provided by the referee or in the Police vet?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
	Are there any patterns of concerning attitudes or behaviours? These can be subtle and wider than the presence or absence of criminal convictions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
	Do you need to follow-up or gather any additional information, e.g., from another referee or more information from a referee already contacted?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
	Do you need to clarify any issues with the applicant directly, e.g., allowing them an opportunity to respond to any information that is unclear or inconsistent? Did they deliberately withhold information?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
	Do you need to talk to your manager about the person?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
Assess the person to determine whether the person poses, or would pose, any risk to the safety of children.
ASSESS	I have assessed the person as posing	<input type="checkbox"/> no risk to children <input type="checkbox"/> risk <input type="checkbox"/> high risk
	If the person does, or could, pose a risk, assess the extent of that risk.
	Notes on the assessment of information and your decision (Aim for a minimum of 80 words please). In addition, if the person has any convictions or comments on their Police vet, ensure you include these in your assessment notes.
