We have legal and moral obligations to act

If any carer or other person arriving to pick up a child is suspected to be under the influence of drugs or alcohol (eg as demonstrated by impaired judgement, mobility or bodily function) the child/ren will not be released into the care of that person as there is potential risk to the child/ren.

(Education (Early Childhood Services) Regulations 2008: Reg. 57).

Staff will offer to call someone on the pick-up list to help, but where the suspected person is non-cooperative, staff will call the police (111).

Regardless of the outcome, Oranga Tamariki will always be notified
